

1. Sign up for a free account on Trello and create a new board named “Social Media Campaign Plan” with at least three lists: Ideas, In Progress, and Completed.

Answer: Trello Board Setup

Board Name: 📱 Social Media Campaign Plan

Create these three lists:

List	Example Tasks
Ideas 💡	Instagram Reel ideas, Festival campaign, Influencer collaboration, Customer testimonial
In Progress 🔄	Design Instagram post, Write captions, Prepare hashtags
Completed ✅	Published Reel, Posted campaign, Completed influencer post

Workflow:

New ideas are first added to Ideas. When work starts, move the card to In Progress. Once the task is finished or published, move it to Completed.

2. Use Google Calendar to schedule a week-long content posting plan for a fictional brand on Instagram, adding at least one event per day with the post topic in the event title.

Answer: Instagram Weekly Content Plan

Fictional Brand: 🍔 FoodieGo

Day	Event Title	Suggested Time
Monday	📷 FoodieGo – Introduction Post	11:00 AM
Tuesday	🍕 FoodieGo – Best Pizza Recommendations	1:00 PM
Wednesday	🎥 FoodieGo – Behind the Scenes Reel	6:00 PM
Thursday	🎁 FoodieGo – Special Discount Offer	12:00 PM
Friday	🍔 FoodieGo – Weekend Food Recommendations	7:00 PM
Saturday	📊 FoodieGo – “Pizza or Burger?” Poll	5:00 PM
Sunday	★ FoodieGo – Customer Review/Testimonial	6:00 PM

How to Create It

Open Google Calendar → select each day → Create Event → enter the post topic as the event title → select the posting time → save.

3. Create a simple content calendar in Google Sheets for a Zomato-style food delivery app, listing 5 days, post topics, target audience, and preferred posting time for each day.

Answer: Food Delivery App Content Calendar

Fictional App: 🍴 FoodieGo

Day	Post Topic	Target Audience	Preferred Posting Time
Monday	"Start Your Week with Delicious Food"	College students & young professionals	12:00 PM
Tuesday	"Top 5 Budget-Friendly Meals"	Students & budget-conscious users	1:00 PM
Wednesday	"Midweek Pizza Offer – 30% OFF"	Pizza lovers & young adults	6:00 PM
Thursday	"New Restaurants Available Near You"	Existing & new users	7:00 PM
Friday	"Weekend Food Party – Special Deals"	Friends & families	8:00 PM

Purpose

This content calendar helps the marketing team plan posts consistently and publish them when the target audience is most likely to be online.

4. Pick any planning tool you know (Trello, Asana, Notion, or Google Sheets) and set up a workflow to track influencer collaborations for a new product launch, including columns or fields for influencer name, platform, status, and deadline.

Answer: Influencer Collaboration Workflow Using Google Sheets

Campaign:  New Product Launch

Influencer Name	Platform	Status	Deadline	Priority
Rahul Foodie	Instagram	 Contacted	10 Sept	 Medium
Neha Vlogs	YouTube	 Confirmed	12 Sept	 Urgent
Aman Eats	Instagram	 Negotiation	14 Sept	 Medium
Food With Priya	Instagram	 Content Creation	16 Sept	 Urgent
The Food Explorer	YouTube	 Completed	18 Sept	 Low

Workflow

1. Find Influencer → 2. Contacted → 3. Negotiation → 4. Confirmed → 5. Content Creation → 6. Published → 7. Completed

Color Coding

-  Red: Urgent tasks or approaching deadlines
-  Yellow: Tasks currently in progress
-  Green: Completed tasks
-  Blue: New/pending collaborations

This workflow makes it easy to see which influencers have been contacted, which collaborations are active, and which deadlines require immediate attention.
